

Information for Prospective Members of the National Alliance

What We Want to Achieve

A message of hope and progress: The men and women of the National Alliance are working to disseminate a message of hope and progress. We want to raise the consciousness of our people, educate them, and provide an opportunity for them to reorient their way of viewing the world and themselves, so they can redirect their energies and begin living and working for a better future.

A better world and a better race: Our ultimate goal is to build a better world and a better race. We want to unite our people on the basis of common blood, organize them within a progressive social order, and inspire them with a common set of ideals. Then there will be no problem which we cannot overcome, no enemy whom we cannot vanquish, and no goal which we cannot attain. In particular, we can return to the eternal task of improving our race genetically, culturally, and morally, generation by generation. We can pull ourselves up from the gutter of moral depravity and multi-racialism and reach once again toward the stars.

Consciousness, solidarity, purpose: As steps toward this ultimate goal we are working now to build White self-awareness, White solidarity, and increased concern among White people for the future security and quality of our race.

Fighting threats: At the same time the National Alliance aims at building opposition to threats to racial progress. Among these are the massive immigration of non-Whites into North America, Europe, and other predominantly White areas; the growing trend toward miscegenation between Whites and non-Whites; dysgenic breeding among Whites themselves; and minority control of the mass media.

Discipline, fitness, responsibility: The National Alliance encourages a searching reexamination of the moral values and ideological criteria which most White people have had instilled in them, primarily by the mass media. We want to build the moral and ideological foundation for a new White society free of the degeneracy, hypocrisy, and multi-racial madness which prevail today; for a new government based on principle and answerable to White people only; and for a new order, in which self-discipline, fitness, and a sense of responsibility are the primary virtues.

Disseminating facts and ideas: The National Alliance wants to raise racial consciousness among White men and women by disseminating facts and ideas, so that it can select from among them an exceptional few who are willing and able to help us achieve our goals.

Our Program

The present phase: In order to achieve its goals, the National Alliance has a multiphase, multifaceted program. The present phase has two facets: public education and cadre building.

Education: The educational facet of the program, aimed at increasing public awareness of the important issues facing our people, consists at this time of the use of various media to disseminate facts and ideas to the White population. We also educate the public on an individual basis through the direct interaction of National Alliance members with non-members.

Facilities: In order to carry out its program, the National Alliance has developed the facilities for the production and distribution of multimedia materials. For all our media — from our recruiting, mentoring, and newsmagazine Web sites, to our weekly radio program, to audio books and printed books published by Cosmotheist Books, to leaflets, flyers, and other recruiting materials — we maintain offices; studios; and meeting, warehouse, and shipping facilities in relatively unspoiled and safe areas of the United States. Some members have developed the necessary skills for participating in this work as researchers, writers, programmers, designers, speakers, or in other specialized capacities. Special capabilities, in fact, are what the Alliance especially seeks in its members. And every member, whether possessing special skills or not, provides financial support for our work and participates as a personal bearer of the world view and the message of the National Alliance.

Cadre building: Educational activity alone cannot achieve the goals of the Alliance, however: It is necessary to build a strong, versatile organization with many capabilities. Thus, the cadre-building facet of the National Alliance program is of at least as great importance as public education. Exceptional persons, capable of a long-term commitment to our goals, must be recruited and integrated effectively into our organizational structure. As this process takes place the capabilities of the organization grow in both degree and kind.

Capabilities: Eventually the National Alliance must contain within itself every functional capability required for continued survival and growth during an extended period of general social and racial decline. In addition to the tasks already described, this will include legal and physical self-defense, organizing through indirect as well as direct means, and continuing our work in the face of drastically changed conditions, such as abridgements of the Constitutional rights of speech and assembly, economic collapse, and public disorder.

A fully developed infrastructure: In the long run, this program can be carried out successfully only by an organization which is, in both the physical and the moral sense, a self-sufficient community with a fully developed infrastructure, able to maintain both its ideological and its racial integrity indefinitely.

Why You Should Join Us

Strength in unity: As a member of the National Alliance you will be doing something about what is happening to your world, instead of just complaining about it. You will be joining your strength to that of many other men and women with the same beliefs and goals. Working alone you can accomplish relatively little; working in concert with others you can have a much greater effect on the course of events around you.

Guidance for members: By keeping informed through internal National Alliance publications of other members' activities and of ongoing National Alliance programs, you will have both guidance and a wider scope for your own activity. You will be able to draw on the experience and special knowledge of other members instead of relying entirely on your own guesswork.

Making your life count: Nothing in life is more satisfying and fulfilling than making a commitment to a great and impersonal goal and then devoting one's talents and energies to its achievement. As a National Alliance member you will be taking a hand in shaping the future and in determining the destiny of your race. By doing so you will share in its immortality.

A necessary task: In addition to the personal satisfaction and fulfillment of doing something which really matters and which makes your life count, you should join the National Alliance because it is the right thing to do. Any White person who can see the threat to the future of the race today and who refuses, whether from cowardice or selfishness, to stand up for his people does not deserve to be counted among them. The task of the National Alliance is an extraordinarily difficult one, but it is necessary, and that should be the only consideration for any man or woman with a fully developed sense of responsibility.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Eligibility: Any White person (a non-Jewish person of wholly European ancestry) of good character and at least 18 years of age who accepts as his own the goals of the National Alliance and who is willing to support the program described in "What is the National Alliance?" may apply for membership. Though most members live in the United States, it is race that counts, not nationality: A citizen or resident of any nation except Israel may apply.

Ineligible persons: No transsexual, homosexual, or bisexual person, no person actively addicted to alcohol or to an illegal drug, no person with a non-White spouse or a non-White dependent, and, except in extraordinary circumstances, no person currently confined in a penal institution may be a member. (The National Alliance does not advocate any illegal activity and expects its members to conduct themselves accordingly.)

Anonymity: The anonymity of members is protected scrupulously; as a general policy, no member's name will be publicized or revealed to any other person without the member's explicit consent. Beyond this, a membership applicant who is concerned that his or her welfare, security, or effectiveness as a member might be jeopardized if there were any possibility at all that his or her membership in the National Alliance were revealed may, if he wishes, hold membership under a nom de guerre. It is the responsibility of the member to insure that mail addressed to his nom de guerre will be delivered by the postal service. Choose an ordinary-sounding name; we do not look with favor on frivolous names.

Supporter category: Those who, because of personal circumstances, wish to support the Alliance's efforts without joining may do so by filling out the supporter form and paying the appropriate fee, and submitting regular donations in lieu of dues. See <http://natall.com> for all documents.
